Lee Robinson sells highest priced residence in Greater Cincinnati in 2010

CINCINNATI, Ohio (May 16, 2011) – It was reported in the May 13th edition of the Cincinnati Business Courier, that Lee Robinson of Robinson Sotheby's International Realty represented the buyer in the sale of the highest priced private residence in the Greater Cincinnati area in 2010. The sale price was $3,515,760.

Lee Robinson: "This was one of the more complicated real estate transactions I've had in my career. There were a lot of moving parts and it was many months in the making."

While the market correction has been quite severe in real estate, people still need to buy and sell homes. As befitting his education and experience, Lee Robinson has been able to navigate the market realities and successfully provide market representation for those buyers and sellers of real estate.

Lee: "My education and experience have helped me more in the past 3 years than in the past 30. The number of untimely issues and amount of negotiation has never been higher. But at the end of the day, if everyone feels they were treated fairly and with respect, that remains the best possible outcome."

In 2009, the international firm of Sotheby's International Realty invited Robinson Realtors to form a partnership representing buyers and sellers of real estate in Southwest Ohio and Northern Kentucky. Now known as Robinson Sotheby's International Realty, the company has superior marketing power and is connected to a world-wide network of over 15,000 agents in over 550 offices, across 55 countries.
